

As an endeavor to be a part of the Coimbatore regions development, a function was organized to handover 200 reflector jackets, 100 litres of rubber paint and 50 cycles by Yi [Coimbatore Chapter] to the Coimbatore City Police.

“This initiative of the Young Indians would help and support the police in organizing crime prevention patrols, drives beside traffic regulation so that the human resource in the force could be effectively used for core policing duties such as crime detection and law and order maintenances besides road rule enforcements” remarked Dr C K Gandhirajan, Commissioner of Police. He said that rather than enforcing the rules, participatory approach and culture of compliance was the need of the hour in any civilized society.

The function was attended by City Police Commissioner Dr C K Gandhirajan, Mr K Thangaraj Chairman of CII (Coimbatore zone) and Mr Shankar Vanavarayar , Chair [Yi Coimbatore], members of the Police force and members of Yi Coimbatore. Mr K Thangaraj and Mr Shankar Vanavarayar handed over the sponsored articles to the police during the function.

The poster on “Wear your helmet” campaign of Yi [Coimbatore] was also released by Dr C K Gandhirajan during the function.
